Hoofland's Column.

YOU ALL
HAVE HEARD OF
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.
THEY CURED YOUR FATHERS AND MOTHERS,
And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are
The greatest known remedies for Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,
and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtueus are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best
ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.
I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.
Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.
I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates Street.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION!

The true friends of the Union in Council!

Union and Victory!

Harmony and Peace!

Hon. Horatio Seymour, of New York, for President!

Gen. F. P. Blair, of Missouri, for Vice President!

FIRST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

NEW YORK, July 4, 1868.

As early as ten o'clock immense crowds began to gather in the neighborhood of Tammany Hall. There was very little confusion manifested during the filling. The seats set apart for ladies were all filled. The hall was most beautifully decorated with flags, banners, flowers and evergreens, interlaced into patriotic emblems, indicative of the great event to be initiated within its spacious walls. On the outside the street was alive with the music of bands, the marching of processions, and the active exertions of the police who found it impossible to keep the streets clear, with their greatest exertions. At times it was physical impossibility to make head-way through the dense masses that surrounded the building.

The great Convention assembled under most favorable auspices. Its sessions were inaugurated amid the boomings of cannon, the huzzas of the multitude, and every indication of popular favor and encouragement. Representing as they do widely separated sections, whose interests are not identical. the delegates evince a most earnest spirit of unanimity and a determination so to discharge the responsible duties devolving upon them as will best conduce to the ultimate triumph of their great and enduring organization. So prominent is this feeling in all the discussions of the members of the Convention that a disinterested spectator could not fail to notice it.

The hall and galleries are densely, crowded and there is a vast mob outside vainly striving to gain admittance.

The Convention was called to order at 12:20 by August Belmont, Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, who said:

Speech of August Belmont.

Gentlemen of the Convention:—It is my privilege to day to welcome you here in this hall, constructed with so much artistic taste, and tendered to you by the time-honored Society of Tammany. I welcome you to this magnificent temple, erected to the Goddess of Liberty by her staunchest defenders and most fervent worshippers. I welcome you to this good City of New York, the bulwark of Democracy, which has rolled back the surging waves of Radicalism through the storms of the last eight years, and I welcome you, gentlemen, to our Empire State, which last fall redeemed herself from Republican misrule by a majority of nearly 50,000 votes, and which claims the right to lead the vanguard of victory in the great battle to be fought next November for the preservation of our institutions, our laws, and our liberties.

It is a most auspicious omen that we meet under such circumstances, and are surrounded by such associations, and I share your own confident hope of the overwhelming success of the ticket and the platform, which will be the result of your deliberations. For it is to the American people that our appeal lies. Their final judgment will be just. The American people will no longer remain deaf to the teachings of of the past. They will remember that it was under successive Democratic administrations, based upon onr national principles, of constitutional liberty, that our country rose to a prosperity and greatness unsurpassed in the annals of history; they will remember the days when North and South marched shoulder to shoulder together in the conquest of Mexico, which gave us our golden Empire on the Pacific; our California and our Oregon, now the strongholds of a triumphant Democracy; they will remember the days when peace and plenty reigneth over the whole Union, when we had no national debt to crush the energies of the people, when the Federal tax-gatherer was unknown throughout the vast extent of the land, and when the credit of the United States stood as high in the money marts of the world as that of any other government; and they will remember with a wise sorrow, that with the downfall of the Democratic party in 1860 came that fearful civil war which has brought mourning and desolation into every household; has cost the loss of a million of American citizens, and has left us a national debt the burden of which drains the resources, cripples the industry, and impoverishes the labor of the country. They will remember that, after the fratricidal strife was over, when the bravery of our army and navy, and the sacrifices of the people had restored the Union and vindicated the supremacy of the law; when the victor and the vanquished were equally ready to bury the past and to hold out the hand of the brotherhood and good-will across the graves of their fallen comrades, it was again the defeat of the Democratic candidates in 1864 which prevented this consummation so devoutly wished for by all. Instead of restoring the Southern States to their constitutional rights, instead of trying to wipe out the miseries of the past by a magnanimous policy, dictated alike by humanity and sound statesmanship, so ardently prayed for by the generous heart of the American people, the Radicals in Congress, elected in an evil hour, have placed the iron heel of the conqueror upon the South. Austria did not dare to fasten upon vanquished Hungary, nor Russia to impose upon conquered Poland the ruthless tyranny now inflicted by Congress upon the Southern States. Military satraps are invested with dictatorial power, overiding the decisions of the courts, and assuming the functions of the civil authorities; the white populations are are disfranchised or forced to submit to test oaths alike revolting to justice and civilization; and a debased and ignorant race, just emerged from servitude, is raised into power to control the destinies of the fair portion of our common country. These men, elected to be legislators and legislators only, trampling the Constitution under their feet, have usurped the functions of the Executive and the Judiciary, and it is impossible to doubt after the events of the past few months, and the circumstances of the impeachment trial, that they will not shrink from an attempt hereafter to subvert the Senate of the United States, which alone stood between them and their victim, and which had virtue enough left not to allow the American name to be utterly disgraced, and justice to be dragged in the dust.. In order to carry out this nefarious programme our army and navy are kept in times of profound peace on a scale which has involved a yearly expenditure of from one to two hundred milions, prevents the reduction of our national debt, and imposes upon our people a system of the most exorbitant and unequal taxation, with a vicious, irredeemable and depreciated currency. And now this same party, which has brought all these evils upon the country, comes again before the American people, asking for their suffrages, and whom has it chosen for its candidate? The General commanding the Armies of the United States. Can there be any doubt as to the designs of they Radicals, if the should be able to keep their hold on the reins of government! They intend Congressional usurpation of all the branches and functions of the government, to be enforced by the bayonets of a military despotism!

It is impossible that a free and intelligent people can longer submit to such a state of things. They will not calmly stand by to see their liberties subverted, the prosperity and greatness of their country undermined, and the institutions bequeathed to them by the fathers of the Republic, wrested from them. They must see that the conservative and national principles of a liberal and progressive Democracy are the only safeguards of the Republic. Gentlemen of the Convention?—Your country looks to you to stay this tide of disorganization, violence, and despotism. It will not look in vain, when next November the roll shall ye called, and when State after State shall respond by rallying around the banner of Democracy, on which in the future as in the past, will be inscribed our undying motto: "The Union, the Constitution, and the Laws!"

Temporary Chairman.

He nominated for temporary Chairman, Hon. Henry D. Palmer of Wisconsin, which was agreed to.

Speech of Mr. Palmer.

Mr. Palmer, on taking the chair, said:

GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION—Permit me to return to you my most sincere acknowledgments for the high compliment you have chosen to confer upon my State, and the great honor you have bestowed upon me in the choice you have made, as the temporary presiding officer of this Convention. Permit me to assure you, gentlemen, that during the brief period I shall have occasion to discharge the duties of the Chair, I shall bring to bear such ability as I may possess to discharge those duties with perfect fairness to all the States and to all the delegates. I do not regard myself as competent; and if I do, I shall not regard it as my duty in occupying the chair temporarily, to enter into any general discussion of the political situation of the day, or to advise, or seek to instruct this Convention in regard to the performance of its labors. I may, however, be permitted to congratulate you and to congratulate our country at large, that on this bright and beautiful anniversary of our nation's birth, once more a convention of the Democracy of this country is assembled in which all the States are represented (prolonged applause), and in which delegates from the East, and from the West, and from the North, and from the South, all come here and unite together to perform a great work for our common country. [Applause.] And permit me to express the hope that this fact may be an omen of a unity of sentiment in this Convention, which shall enable you to produce such a work as will commend itself to the approval of the people of our whole country, and thus wrest it from the hand which seeks its destruction. [Applause.] Again thanking you gentlemen for the compliment you have chosen to pay me, I shall have the pleasure of presenting to the Convention the Rev. Dr. Morgan, of New York.

Prayer was offered by Dr. Morgan, rector of St. Thomas, New York.

Mr. Clymer, of Pennsylvania, then offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That there shall be now two committees appointed, each consisting of one delegate from each State, to be selected by their delegations, one a committee on permanent organization and the other a committee on credentials.

The Chairman then put the resolution, which was carried.

The Secretary then called the roll of each State, and delegates were appointed on the committees. Pennsylvanians were selected for the several committees, as follows:—on Credentials, Gen. W. H. Miller; on Organization, Hiester Clymer; on Resolutions and Platform, Francis W. Hughes.

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

NEW YORK, July 6.

Reassembling of the Convention.

The reassembling of the National Democratic Convention to-day was marked by the greatest enthusiasm among all present. About nine o'clock, crowds began to gather in the streets around Tammany Hall, and the streets were filled with a very large assemblage of people, who eagerly pressed forward to the entrance, in order to secure admission, which to-day was by white tickets. The delegates who happened to be in the crowd were besieged by the people for tickets, and those who had any to spare were the objects of especial attention.

At 10 o'clock Governor Seymour was seen coming up the street and was lustily cheered. The selection of ex-Governor Seymour as permanent President was enthusiastically received, and loudly applauded by the vast assemblage within the hall.

Permanent Organization.

Mr. Clymer, from the Committee on Permanent Organization, reported in favor of Horatio Seymour for permanent President of the Convention, and a Vice President and Secretary from each State. Seymour's name was greeted with immense applause. He was escorted to the chair by Messrs. Bigler, of Pennsylvania, and Hammond, of South Carolina. Upon taking the chair, Seymour was greeted with tremendous applause, the whole Convention rising and waving hats. The President acknowledged the honor in an eloquent and conciliatory speech, which was loudly applauded. The rules of the Chicago Convention of 1864 were adopted for the government of the present Convention.

Resolutions Referred.

Resolutions from the Workingmen's Association, in favor of paying bonds in greenbacks or funding the debt into three per cent. loan, were received with immense applause.

Resolutions.

Mr. Kerr, of Pennsylvania, offered a resolution complimentary to President Andrew Johnson; referred. A resolution complimentary to Chief Justice Chase, for his impartiality in presiding over the Court of Impeachment, was offered and read with loud applause.

A resolution approving the recent amnesty proclamation was adopted.

Nomination of Candidates.

Mr. Bigler offered a resolution to proceed to nominate candidates for President of the United States, which was received with loud applause. A resolution was then adopted pledging the delegates to support the nominee of the Convention. Mr. Hutchins moved to amend Mr. Bigler's resolution by providing that no nomination be made until after the platform shall have been adopted. Mr. Bigler explained that it was not his intention to ballot for candidates, but simply to nominate them. Mr. Bigler's resolution was again read, and a vote by States taken on Mr. Hutchins' amendment, and it was adopted by 159 yeas to 89 nays.

Evening Session.

The Convention reassembled at 4.15, the delegates giving three cheers for President Seymour.

Soldiers and Sailors Committee.

On motion, it was agreed to appoint a committee of five to receive the committee of the Soldiers and Sailors Convention, and receive their address. Soon after, Sergeant Bates entered the Hall, carrying his flag. He was greeted with loud applause.

Reception of Soldiers and Sailors.

At 4:25 the committee of the Convention appeared, and through Judge Woodward introduced the committee of soldiers and sailors, who were invited to the stand, the Convention greeting the soldiers with loud applause. The Chair then presented Franklin and his colleagues, and said that they desire peace, Union, and fraternal feeling in the country.

General Franklin announced the purpose of the committee, and Colonel O'Bierne proceeded to read an address of the Soldiers' Convention, which was listened to with marked attention. Upon the conclusion of the address three cheers were given for the conservative soldiers and sailors.

General Thomas Ewing, of Kansas, was then introduced, and proceeded to address the Convention. Upon the conclusion of General Ewing's speech the Convention arose en masse and gave three hearty cheers for the conservative soldiers and sailors. It was then moved that the address of the soldiers and sailors be spread upon the minutes, and made part of the proceedings of the Convention. Agreed to.

The Committees on nominations and platform not being ready to report, the convention, at 6 P. M., adjourned till to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

NEW YORK, July 7.

Opening of the Convention.

The Convention assembled at 10 o'clock this morning. The vast audience that filled the rear of the hall and the gallery was a most imposing gathering.

Reading of the Platform.

The reading of the platform was listened to with profound attention, and when the financial planks were reached, the whole Convention rose en masse and cheered for several minutes. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed, and it was some time before order could be fully restored.

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen; and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in Constitutional Convention assembled and never to be renewed or reagitated, do with the return of peace demand:

First. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second. Amnesty for all past political offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third. Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapid as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, be paid in the lawful money of the United States. [Thunders of applause].

Fourth. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds, and other public securities. [Renewed cheering and cries of "read it again."]

Fifth. One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder. [Great cheering and cries of "Read it again."] The fifth resolution was again read, and again cheered.

Sixth. Economy in the administration of the government the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau [great cheering,] and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system, and discontinuance of inquisitorial assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace, and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh. Reform of abuses in the administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices; the restoration of rightful authority to, and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government; the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction. [Applause.]

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled opression and tryranny which have marked its career.

After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to voctory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy. It has nulified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus—that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures, and arrests, and military trials, and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and siezures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American Capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunals, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the the pillars of the government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet as a subjected and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British crown the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and if sanctioned by the people, will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so-called) of Congress, as such, are usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void.

That our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guaranties given their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws. and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.—[Great applause.]

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the Conservative element, and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people, and that to all such, to whatever-part they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship, and hail all such co-operating with us as friends and brethren. [Applause.]

Nomination.

Mr. Bigler, of Pa., moved that the Convention now proceed to nominate a candidate for President of the United States. Carried.

Mr. Eaton, of Connecticut, referred to the gloom which hung over the Democratic party at the close of the war, and reminded the Convention that Connecticut was the first State to pierce the gloom by the election of a Democratic Governor, James E. English, whom Connecticut now presents as her candidate.

Mr. Anderson, of Maine, eloquently eulogized, and presented the name of Gen. W. S. Hancock. (Cheers.)

New Jersey nominated ex-Governor Joel Parker, for whom he claimed a national reputation.

Mr. Tilden, of New York, by the unanimous vote of the delegation, nominated Sanford E. Church, whom he eulogized as a statesman of enlarged experience, and a man who has always achieved success befere the people. [Cheers.]

Mr. Clark, of Wisconsin, on behalf of the majority of the delegation, nominated James R. Doolittle. (Cheers.)

The roll was then called on the first ballot with the following result: Pendleton, 105; Hancock, 33½; Church, 34; English, 16; Parker, 13; Packer, 26; Andrew Johnson, 65; Doolittle, 13; Hendricks, 2½; Blair, ½; Reverdy Johnson, 8½.

Whole number of votes, 317. Necessary to a choice, 211½.

Five more ballots were taken without a choice being made, after which the Convention adjourned till to-morrow, ot 10 A. M.

General McCook, of Ohio, by the unanimous voice of her Convention, placed in nomination George H. Pendleton. (Cheers.)

Woodward, of Peensylvania, by the unamimous vote of her delegation, nominated Hon. Asa Packer and in an eloquent speech, urged his nomination.

Mr. Nelson, of Tennesse, rose to present the name of one who he claims the qualifications. He set forth in a few earnest and forcible remarks, concluding by nominating Andrew Johnson. Great cheeering, both among the delegates and spectators.

On the fourth day, twelve ballots were taken, without a sufficient number of votes being cast for any candidate to make a choice, and the Convention again adjourned till next day.—On Thursday, on the twentieth ballot, the vote stood Hancock, 121. Hendricks 124; the rest scattering. On the twenty-second ballot, HORATIO SEYMOUR, the President of the Convention, was unamiously nominated for Presinent. He had, on previous occasions, declined the use of his name for the office, but the states, one after another, insisted on his accepting the nomination.

Gen. F. P. BLAIR, of Missouri, was unaimously nominated for Vice President.

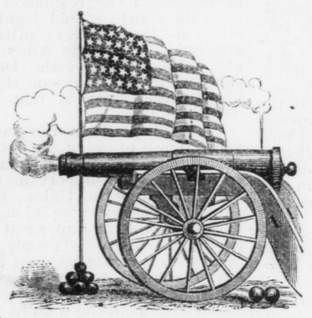
Our Grand Ticket!



The Democratic National Convention assembled at New York on the 4th inst., and remained in session until the 9th. Its labors were entirely harmonious, and the result reached is one of which the Democracy may well be proud. A platform of principles in which there is no evasion, no equivocation, but which goes straight to the mark, was ananimously adopted. Upon this platform are placed the greatest statesman in the Union, and the most dashing soldier of the war. Horatio Seymour, of New York, is a name which is a household word with every man who loves civil liberty, religious tolerance and constitutional government. Compared with Grant, he appears as Hyperion to a satyr.

Maj. Gen F. P. Blair, whose white plume, like that of Henry of Navarre, waved upon the storm of battle on every field in the South West, who was at the side of Lyon when he fell at Wilson's Creek, who stormed the heights of Vicksburg, who led the charge at Chickamauga, who marched with Sherman to the sea, this dashing hero represents the soldier element of the country upon the ticket. Besides being a soldier, he is a statesman and has had much experience as a legislator. Bold and fearless, he is the very man to preside over the Radical Senate and curb them in their excess.

The nominations of Seymour and Blair, have been most enthusiastically received from one end of the country to the other. They are bound to win, and we should not be astonished if the defeat of the imbecile Grant, will be more decisive and disastrous than even that of Scott in 1852.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE SOLDIERS.

Twenty two hundred honorably discharged soldiers of the Union, six hundred of whom were general officers, met at New York during the session of the Democratic National Convention, and endorsed the nominations of Seymour and Blair and the Democratic National Platform. Among them were Maj. Gen. W. B. Franklin, Maj. Gen. D. N. Couch, Maj. Gen. Slocum, Maj. Gen. W. W. Averill, Maj. Gen. W. F (Baldy) Smith, Maj. Gen. John A. McClernand, Maj. Gen. G. A. Custer, Maj. Gen. Gordon Granger, Maj. Gen. Thos. Ewing, Maj. Gen. Duryea, (of the famous Zouaves) Maj. Gen. W. S. Hillyer and many others. This does not look much like Grant being popular with the army.

GEN. W. S. HANCOCK has openly declared that he is gratified with the nomination of Mr. Seymour, as in the present condition of things, it is better that a statesman should be elected to the Presidency. Gen. Hancock is a patriot and will not be forgotten for his devotion to the Constitution of his country.

BRAINS VS. BUTTONS.

The Democracy of the Union present the name of the greatest Statesman of the age, HORATIO SEYMOUR, as their Standard-bearer during the coming struggle. The Radicals ask the people to vote for Grant, a man who knows nothing about civil affairs and whose private character is assailed even by his own partizans. The Democrats say for their candidate, that he understands the workings of our government, that he has been a close student of the Federal Constitution, that he is a friend of civil and religious liberty, that he has always stood up against intolerance and tyranny, that he is an educated and talented christian gentleman, and that from his administration the people can expect relief from the burdens which have so long and so heavily oppressed them. The Radicals can say for their candidate only this, that he stepped into the Lieutenant-Generalship over the dead bodies of a hundred thousand Union soldiers sacrificed to his blundering generalship. Now, can it be possible, that any man can mistake in making his choice between these two men? Can it be that any sensible, patriotic man should desire to place the destiny of this country in the hands of an ignorant blunderer, controlled by the corrupt Washburne, rather than in the hands of an accomplished statesman and honest patriot like Horatio Seymour? It is Brains against Buttons, Statesmanship against Butchery. Who can hesitate in making the choice.

THE Pennsylvania delegation to the New York Convention, after casting some complimentary votes for Judge Packer, voted consistently for Gen. Hancock, to the last. But the West, not being able to nominate Mr. Pendleton, desired to nominate one of their own gallant generals for Vice President, and were strong enough in the Convention to accomplish their wish. The vote for Gen. Hancock was a very flattering one, especially from the Southern States, the very men who had met and fought against him in the field voting for him. But it is far better that we will have a statesman for President, and that Gen. Hancock will then be placed at the head of the War Department.

HORATIO SEYMOUR, when Governor of New York, in 1863, sent his troops to the relief of Harrisburg, when the rebels threatened it, before Gov. Curtin had got a single militia man in the field. By this timely action he assisted in checking the rebs., and they were compelled to fall back upon Gettysburg where they were defeated.—The gratitude of Pennsylvanians for this patriotic act, will be expressed at the polls in November.

IN 1863, Horatio Seymour exposed and frustrated the trick by which Stanton attempted to draft double the number of men from the German and Irish districts of New York, that were due upon a fair quota. It will be remembered that Stanton's attempted outrage upon the German and Irish citizens of New York, produced a riot; but Seymour pacified the rioters and compelled the War Department to equalize the draft.

A correspondent of the Franklin Repository, speaking of the Congressional nomination, advocates the cause of Col. Geo. B. Weistling, as the "Republican" candidate for this district, and hits John Cessna in this style:—"Col. Weistling permanently located in this county, a thorough Republican, in 1864, some several months before Hon. John Cessna left the hopeless cause of the Democratic party."

That is the "unkindest cut of all." Johnny, you ought to remember that you are not yet full fledged in your adopted party, and you had better not be so greedy. If, when you reach for the "loaves and fishes," you get rapped over the fingers severely, you must not complain.

THE editor of the Hollidaysburg Register, who is personally acquainted with the men on our county ticket, says:—"On the whole, this is a very good ticket, and if the Democrats must succeed in that benighted county, we are glad they nominated such good men." On the other hand, the editors of the Bedford Inquirer, call our nominees "wooden men" and say they might answer as "heathen gods," &c, When two such great philosophers differ, we intend to leave the whole matter in the hands of the people of this county to decide, which they will do, by giving our nominees an overwhelming majority.

NEVER in our recollection, has a nomination created such unbounded enthusiasm, as that of Seymour and Blair. There is a general rejoicing all over the country, for the people have made up their minds to elect them by unprecedented majorities.

CLOSING SCENE IN THE NEW YORK CONVENTION.

While the twenty-second ballot was being taken the States were voting about the same as the previous ballot, showing that no choice could be had of the names before the convention. Seeing this, Gen. McCook, of Ohio, rose and nominated Gov. Seymour, of New York. No one who was present, will ever forget the scene that followed, as State after State cast her vote to place in nomination the next President of the United States. But read the proceedings:

When Ohio was called, Mr. M'Cook, by unanimous direction of his delegation, and with the assent and approval of every public man in that State, including Mr. Pendleton, put in nomination against his inclination, but no longer against his power, the name of Hon. Horatio Seymour. Let us vote for a man whom the Presidency has sought, and who has not sought the Presidency. This he believed would drive from power the Radical cabal at Washington. He believed this nomination would command the unanimous approval of Democrats and conservative men of all sections. He asked, on behalf of the country, that Seymour should yield to this wish of the Convention. (Great excitement and applause.)

Mr. McCook cast 21 votes for Horatio Seymour. [Renewed cheering.]

Mr. Seymour rose and said—The motion just made excited most mingled emotions. He had no language in which to thank the Convention, and to express his regret that his name had been presented, but in a question affecting his duty and honor, he must stand by his opinion against the world.

He could not be nominated without putting himself and the Democratic party in peril. When he declined the nomination he meant it. He paid an eloquent tribute to Mr. Pendleton, and his magnanimity, and in closing, said: Thanking the Convention, your candidate I cannot be.

Mr. Vallandigham said—In times of great exigence and calamity, every personal consideration should be cast aside. He insisted that Horatio Seymour must yield to the demonstration in his behalf. Ohio's vote must and should stand for Horatio Seymour. He called upon the several delegations to follow that lead.

Mr. Kierman, of New York, said: To relieve everybody in regard to the New York delegation, he would say they have no lot nor part in the movement of Ohio; they had heard something of it, but declined to take any part in it, out of regard for the proper sensitiveness of the President of the Convention, until other States should show by their action that Seymour was demanged by the party in Convention. He urded the necessity of success in the campaign, and expressed his opinion that Mr. Seymour could now accept the judgment of the convention with honor, and that he should yield as a matter of duty to its wishes. With him as the candidate, New York was good for 100,000 majority.

The call of the roll was then proceeded with.

Tennessee gave Horatio Seymour 10.

When Wisconsin was called, Mr. Palmer seconded the State of Ohio, and cast 8 votes for Horatio Seymour.—(Great cheering.)

Kentucky gave Seymour her 11 votes. (Great cheering.)

Massachusetts gave 12 for Seymour.

North Carolina changed her 9 votes from Hendricks to Seymour. (Cheers.)

Pennsylvania asked that her vote be not recorded for the present.

Mississippi changed from Hancock to Seymour. (Great cheering and confusion ensued, delegates standing upon the seats: cries of "sit down in front," "order.")

Mr. Price took the chair and insisted that the gentlemen must take their seats, and he would recognize no one until order was restored.

Mr. Woodward, of Pennsylvania, now rose and transferred her 26 votes to Horatio Seymour. Great cheering and disorder. Cries of delegates all over the house to their respective chairmen, "Change our vote!" "Change our vote!" Half a dozen States at once wanted to change their votes.

Missouri changed to Seymour, 11.

Illinois followed en masse for Seymour. (Tremendous cheering; indescribable confusion.)

Indiana changed solidly to Seymour.

Iowa came next, 8 for Seymour.

Texas cast her six.

Here the cannon on the Street began to fire a salute for the nominee.

State after State came in, but the confusion and noise was so great that not a word could be distinguished of what any body said.

Seymour is clearly nominated.

The confusion is subsiding.

Alabama, Main, Kansas and Arkansas followed successively unanimously for Seymour.

Mr. Dawson, of Pennsylvania, moved that the nomination be made by acclamation, but there was so much confusion that nothing was done with it.

A delegate from Minnesota, frantically waiving one of the State standards, attracted the attention of the chairman, and cast the vote of Minnesota for Seymour.

Georgia paid a tribute to Hancock, the most sprightly soldier of the war, whom she had supported earnestly, but she now united in voting unanimously for Seymour.

Louisiana gave her seven for Seymour.

Stuart, of Michigan, said that State came to the Convention with a single purpose to nominate a candidate who could certainly be elected. That position she occupied to-day. He proceeded to eulogize Seymour as the greatest statesman now living, and cast Michigan's eight votes for him.

The band on Fourteenth street struck up "The battle cry of Freedom," the cannon still saluting.

A delegate from South Carolina said he was from a state which felt most heavily the chains of oppression of Radical rule. He said South Carolina came here caring more for men than measures. They were satisfied with the platform adopted so unanimously, and South Carolina, with the invocation of God's blessing on the party on which rests the last hope of the country, casts her vote for Seymour.

Maryland changed to Seymour.

Mr. Tilden, of New York, rose.—Great interest to hear him was manifested, and cries were uttered to "take the platform." He spoke from his place, however, and said he did not last evening believe that the event which has now occurred could have happened. His remarks here were not distinctly audible to the reporter because of the conversation in his vicinity. He was understood to say that he had no expectation that Ohio would have come to the support of even so distinguished a citizen of the State of New York, which had opposed Ohio's most earnest wishes. In conclusion he announced the unanimous vote New York for Horatio Seymour.

Mr. Clark, of Wisconsin, called for the ratification of the nomination by the spectators by three cheers for Horatio Seymour, which were given with a will. The Chair announced the result. All the States having voted for Horatio Seymour giving him 317 votes. [Enthusiastic cheering.]

The whole Convention and audience rose en masse, waiving hats, hankerchiefs, fans, &c., for several minutes. Loud calls for Seymour. Cries of sit down in front. The Chair rapped with his gavel, and called to order in vain for some time.

THE DIFFERENCE.

When a man, engaged in the late rebellion, elects to vote against the Radical ticket, he is a hideous rebel, a man to be shunned by all the truly "loil." But when another man, who was one of the founders of Andersonville prison, with all its sufferings and horrors, and who captured Union negro soldiers and remanded them into slavery, comes into the Radical fold, he is at once "reconstructed" and his many sins are forgiven him. For instance, Gov. Joe. Brown, of Georgia. Oh! consistency, thou art a jewel.

HORATIO SEYMOUR was elected Governor of New York, in 1862, upon a platform of a "more vigorous prosecution of the war", and during his administration New York raised and equipped the splendid regiments which made so grand a record for the Empire State. Yet Mr. Seymour is called a "copperhead," and his nomination an insult to Union Soldiers.

HURRAH for Seymour and Blair! It is the winning ticket! Now, Democrats organize for Brains against Buttons!

GENERAL FRANK P. BLAIR DEFINES HIS POSITION.

WASHINGTON, June 30.

Colonel Jas. O. Broadhead.

DEAR COLONEL:—In reply to your inquiries, I beg leave to say that I leave you to determine, on consultation with my friends from Missouri, whether my name shall be presented to the Democratic Convention, and to submit the following, as what I consider the real and only issue in this contest.

The reconstruction policy of the Radicals will be complete before the next election; the States, so long excluded, will have been admitted, negro suffrage established and the carpet-baggers installed in their seats in both branches of Congress. There is no possibility of changing the political character of the Senate, even if the Democrats should elect their President and a majority of the popular branch of Congress. We cannot, therefore, undo the Radical plan of reconstruction by Congressional action; the Senate will continue a bar to its repeal. Must we submit to it? How can it be overthrown? It can only be overthrown by the authority of the executive, who is sworn to maintain the Constitution, and who will fail to do his duty if he allows the Constitution to perish under a series of Congressional enactments which are in palpable violation of its fundamental principle.

If the President elected by the Democracy enforces or permits others to enforce these Reconstruction acts, the Radicals, by the accession of twenty spurious Senators and fifty Representatives, will control both branches of Congress, and his administration will be as powerless as the present one of Mr. Johnson.

There is but one way to restore the Government and the Constitution, and that is for the President elect to declare these acts null and void, disperse the carpet-bag State governments, allow the white people to reorganize their own governments, and elect Senators and Representatives. The House of Representatives will contain a majority of Democrats from the North, and they will admit the Representatives elected by the white people of the South, and with the co-operation of the President it will not be difficult to compel the Senate to submit once more to the obligations of the Constitution. It will not be able to withstand the public judgment, if distinctly invoked and clearly expressed, on this fundamental issue, and it is the sure way to avoid all future strife to put this issue plainly to the country.

I repeat that this is the real and only question which we should allow to control us; Shall we submit to the usurpations by which the Government has been overthrown or shall we exert ourselves for its full and complete restoration. It is idle to talk of bonds, greenbacks, gold, the public faith and the public credit. What can a Democratic President do in regard to any of these with a Congress in both branches controlled by the carpet-baggers and their allies? He will be powerless to stop the supplies by which idle negroes are organized into political clubs—by which an army is maintained to protect these vagabonds in their outrage upon the ballot. These, and things like these, which eat up the revenues and resources of the Government and destroy its credit, make the difference between gold and greenbacks. We must restore the Constitution before we can restore the finances, and to do this we must have a President who will execute the will of the people by trampling into dust the usurpations of Congress, known as the reconstruction acts. I wish to stand before the Convention upon this issue, but it is one which embraces everything else that is of value in its large and comprehensive results. It is the one thing that includes all that is worth a contest, and without it there is nothing that gives dignity, honor or value to the struggle. Your friend,

FRANK P. BLAIR.

AMNESTY PROCLAMATION BY PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

By the President of the United States--A Proclamation.

WHEREAS, In the month of July, Anno Domini 1861, in accepting the conditions of civil war, which was brought about by insurrection and rebellion in several of the States which constitute the United States, the two Houses af Congress did solemnly declare that that war was not waged on the part of the Government in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest or subjugation; nor for any purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of the States, but only to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution of the United States, and to preserve the Union with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired, and that as soon as those objects should be accomplished, the war on the part of the Government should cease; and,

Whereas, The President of the United States has, heretofore, in the spirit of that declaration, and with the view of securing for it ultimate and complete effect, set forth several proclamations offering amnesty and pardon to persons who had been or were concerned in the afore-named rebellion, which proclamations, however, were attended with prudential reservations and exceptions then deemed necessary and proper, and which proclamations were respectively issued on the 8th day of December, 1863, on the 29th day of March, 1864, on the 29th day of May, 1865, and on the 7th day of September, 1867; and,

Whereas, The said lamentable civil war has long since altogether ceased with an acknowledgement by all the States of the supremacy of the Federal Constitution, and of the Government thereunder; and there no longer exists any reasonable ground to apprehend a renewal of the said civil war, or any foreign interference, or any unlawful resistance by any portion of the people of any of the States to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and,

Whereas, It is desirable to reduce the standing army, and to bring to a speedy termination military occupation, martial law, military tribunals, abridgement of the freedom of speech and of the press, and suspension of the privilege of habeas corpus, and of the right of trial by jury, such encroachments upon our free institutions in time of peace being dangerous to public liberty, incompatible with the individual rights of the citizen, contrary to the genious and spirit of our Republican form of government and exhaustive of the National resources, and,

Whereas, It is believed that amnesty and pardon will tend to secure a complete and universal establishment and prevalence of municipal law and order, in conformity with the Constitution of the United States, and to remove all appearances and presumptions of a retaliatory or vindictive policy on the part of the Government, attended by unnecessary disqualifications, pains, penalties, confiscations and disfranchisements, and on the contrary to promote and procure complete fraternal reconciliation among the whole people, with due submission to the Constitution and laws; now,

Therefore, Be it known that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do, by virtue of the Constitution, and in the name of the people of the United States, hereby proclaim and declare unconditionally, and without reservation, to all and every person who directly or indirectly participated in the late insurrection or rebellion, excepting such person or persons as may be under presentment or indictment in any Court of the United States having competent jurisdiction upon a charge of treason or felony, a full pardon and amnesty for the offence of treason against the United States, or of adhering to their enemies during the late civil war, with restoration of all rights of property, except as to slaves, and except, also, as to any property of which any person may have been legally divested under the laws of the United States.

In testimony whereof, I have signed these presents with my hand, and have caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, the fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the ninety-third.

(Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON.

AMONG the many awards of First Prize Gold Medals at the Paris Exposition, two only were given to manufacturers of Organs. The recipients were Messrs. Mechlin & Schut, of France and Belgium, for large organs, who also received the decoration of the Legion of Honor, and Messrs. Alexandre & Son, of Paris, for the best reed organs.

The harmoniums or "Alexandre organs" of the latter house, have a world wide notoriety for many years, but they have never obtained popularity in the United States on account of their loud and reedy quality of tone, yet the internal mechanicism is very fine and durable, and has been greatly commended by all who have inspected these instruments.

Competent and disinterested judges who are well informed in relation to the merits of reed organs manufactured in Europe as well as in this country, and who have carefully examined the AMERICAN ORGANS, manufactured by Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith, of Boston, have pronouced them unexcelled even by the "Alexandre Organ," in the beauty and perfection of the internal workmanship, while in the quality of tone, whether soft smooth or powerful, in variety of combination or delicate expressive effects, they have been adjudged far superior, though they were not on exhibition at the Paris Exposition.

We learn that the new Masonic Temple is to be furnished with two of these unrivalled instruments, which are now in process of construction.—Boston Journal.

Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper into the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

THERE are two special qualities which determine and fix the superiority of Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S new style improved hair restorer or dressing, in one bottle, over all other preparations for the hair. First, the prompt, quick action, great growth, life and vigor that it is sure to give to the hair, never failing, by a few applications, to restore Grey or white hair to its natural color, imparting to the Hair a Delightful aroma, fresh, delicate, and unchangeable in any climate. Second, its easy application without any previous preparation of the Hair; without that sticky and disagreeable sulphur odor found and complained of in all other preparations. SPECIAL NOTICES.

REASONS WHY.

We are enabled to offer superior inducements to purchasers of clothing, to which your attention is respectfully invited.

We have a business experience of more than 25 years, have been longer established than any house in our trade in Philadelphia.

We employ sufficient capital to make ALL PURCHASES FOR CASH, which, together with the fact that our large business enables us to buy in large amounts in first hands, thereby saving all profits of jobbers and middlemen, give us advantages in purchasing at the lowest rates, SHARED BY NO HOUSE IN OUR TRADE.

We sell only for cash and having no losses from bad debts to provide for, the paying customer is not TAXED TO HELP PAY THE DEBT OF ANOTHER who does not pay, as is inevitably the case in a business where credit is given.

We employ the best talent in all departments, which, with long experience, enable us to manufacture garments SUPERIOR IN EVERY RESPECT—equalled by few—surpassed by none.

We have the largest establishment for the manufacture and sale of clothing in Philadelphia, extending through from 518 Market street to 511 Minor street, occupied exclusively by ourselves, also a branch store at 600 Broadway, New York, and keep at all times of

MEN'S, YOUTH'S and BOYS' READY-MADE CLOTHING, the largest stock and best assortment in the city, from which any person can be accurately fitted at once, as well, or better, than by garments made to order, our large stock comprising every size of all styles of goods. We have recently added to our previous stock a full assortment of CHILDREN'S GARIBALDI AND OTHER SUITS, equal to any in the city in style, trimming, and make; which are sold at lower prices than have hitherto been known in Philadelphia. They, with all our Boys' and Youth's goods, are kept on the first floor, nearest the front, convenient for ladies. We have also recently opened on our SECOND FLOOR A CUSTOM DEPARTMENT for the display of a choice selection of Foreign and Domestic Fabrics in the piece, which will be MADE UP TO ORDER, in the best style, by competent and skillful cutters and workmen. The advantage of dealing with a CASH HOUSE will be especially apparent in this department, upon a comparison of prices.

We guarantee our prices lower than the lowest elsewhere and also guarantee full satisfaction to every purchaser, and request, that should any cause of dissatisfaction exist with a purchase made, it may be reported to us, pledging ourselves, by exchange, refunding of money, or otherwise, to give full satisfaction in every case. (Samples and prices sent by mail when desired.)

An examination of our stock respectfully requested and your patronage, if the above statement of facts be satisfactorily demonstrated.

DR. S. I. TOBIAS' PULMONIC LIFE SYRUP, for the cure of Incipient Consumption, Coughs, colds, Croup, Asthma, Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, and General Debility. For several years I have been urged by kind freinds, who have used, and been benefited by, my Life Syrup, to put it up for general sale; but few know the large expense, now that the country is flooded with Patent Medicines, which attend the same For years past I was reluctant to do so, as the capital required would be large, and I did not wish to curtail the operations of my Venetian Liniment business. But, thanks to the generous public, who have appreciated my Venetian Liniment, I am now able to do so, without any detriment to my large business in that medicine. The foundation of my success I attribute to attending to the manufacture of every drop myself, and shall do the same in regard to my Pulmonic Life Syrup. The Ingredients are perfectly harmless, but act on the Lungs and Liver with astonishing effect. Price 75 cents. Depot, No. 56 Cortlandt Street, New York, near Jersey City Ferry. Sold by the Druggists and Store keepers. june5m1

A NEW REMEDY IN CONSUMPTION.—A Physician who had Consumption for several years, with frequent bleedings of the lungs, cured himself with a medicine unknown to the profession, when his case appeared hopeless. He is the only physician who has used it in his own person, or who has any knowledge of its virtues; and he can ascribe the degree of health he now enjoys to nothing but the use of his medicine; and nothing but utter despair and entire extinction of all hope of recovery, together with a want of confidence in all others induced him to hazard the experiment To those suffering with any disease of the Lungs he proffers a treatment he confidently believes will eradicate the disease. Medicine sent by express. Send for a circular or call on

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR!

Grand Ratification Meeting!

BEDFORD COUNTY AROUSED!

Unbounded Enthusiasm!

Last Thursday the nomination for President and Vice President of the United States was made in New York. The spontaneous endorsement, by the people, of the platform and nominees, is truly wonderful. From Maine to California the shout of the multitude rent the air. Bedford, true to her instincts of Democracy, resolved at once to give her emphatic approval of the work done in the nominating convention. A ratification meeting was called for Saturday evening last, in front of the Bedford Hotel. Owing to the limited notice given, but few were expected from the country around; yet when evening came quite a number were present to assist in the good work. When the Band struck up there was a general rush to Pitt street where the meeting was held. On motion of J. G. Fisher, the meeting was organized by the election of the following officers: President, Hon. G. W. GUMP; V. Prest's, John Mowry, James Corboy, Sr., Jacob Fetter, Joseph Souser, J. T. Gephart, Jacob Semler, George Blymyer and Andrew Mortimore; Secretaries, J. Henry Hutton, Adam F. Miller and R. W. Berkstresser.

Three cheers were then given for Seymour and Blair. O. E. Shannon, Esq., opened with a short speech of great force, after which he introduced Samuel H. Reynolds, Esq., of Lancaster, Pa., who made one of the most eloquent and patriotic speeches that we have ever listened to. He gave a scathing exposition of the fraud, corruption and inhumanity that actuates the dominant party, but told the people to be of good cheer, for with proper effort on their part, Radicalism will soon be wiped from the face of the earth. He was frequently interrupted with rounds of applause. He was followed by J. W. Collier and Julius Aronia, Esqs., of Louisiana, who depicted the sad condition of the South, since the mongrels have labored so assiduously to degrade the white man, and retain power through the bayonet and the negro. The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Seymour, the next President.

On behalf of the Democracy, we return thanks to the many ladies who graced the meeting with their presence. The Democracy are also under many obligations to the Democratic Band for the music they favored the meeting with.

MEETING OF THE GRANT AND COLFAX FACTION.—According to previous announcement the Grant and Colfax club was to meet in the court house, on Saturday evening last. The bell rung to call the faithful together. The President met; immediately after which the President adjourned himself to the corner of Pitt and Juliana Streets. Presto, change! and the "club" turned up in front of the Washington. The usual crew across the corner, and the storebox loungers below, formed a nucleus around which the impeachers gathered. The crowd was slim; a large portion of it having been attracted thither by the hideous yells, under the impression that several dog fights were in progress. Altogether it was a wonderful gathering. Cessna bellowed till he got so hoarse that troches had to be brought into requisition; while Moses Aminadab, ever ready to imitate his master, so far excelled him, as to get an octave higher. It was a matter of question, whom they were addressing; their own thin ranks, or the large crowd of Democrats a square off. Hall, too, not to be behind, retailed his usual slang, of which even his own party is getting tired. We were informed that he had with him that veritable book, carried on former occasions, to prove the divinity of slavery, but a reliable informant tells us that he is willing to take an iron-clad oath that the rumor is false.

Occasionally a squib was fired off, or a rocket sent up to keep the boys in proper spirit, but of no avail, for the meeting went up like a rocket and came down like a stick. Sic transit gloria mundi; which being liberally translated means, "My glorious old aunt's been sick since Monday. And she'll get sicker. Selah!

THE "GLORIOUS FOURTH."—The 4th passed off quietly in our town. No public demonstration of any sort took place. About the "break of day" a few patriotic young men burnt a lot of powder, in the Square, the noise of which greatly disturbed that portion of the community who never realize that glorious sight called sun-rise. In the afternoon the Lutheran S. School had a pic-nic in Defibaugh's woods, where the children were treated to choice music, beautifully "ground out," and other "refreshments." In town, that time honored practice, the reading of the Declaration of Independence, was dispensed with. We have heard of several persons who read the Freedmen's Bureau Bill, instead.

A NEW platform adopted—in the Square, on the night of the 3d.

GAME LAW.—Considerable difference of opinion having prevailed among our people as to the character of the game law passed by the last legislature for this county, we have made application at the Executive office, at Harrisburg, for information upon the subject. Through the kindness of B. F. Chandler, Esq., of the Executive department, we are enabled to lay before our readers, the only law in regard to game that was passed last winter, for this county. It is an act extending the provisions of the following act to the counties of Bedford and Fulton, and, as will be seen, applies only to wild turkeys and squirrels:

AN ACT For the protection of wild turkeys and squirrels, and for other purposes, in the county of Huntingdon.

Section—1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful for any person to shoot any wild turkey, within the county of Huntingdon, in said commonwealth, between the first day of February and the fifteenth day of October; nor shall any person trap, pen, or snare, any wild turkey, or molest the nest thereof, or build any pen, or set any trap, or snare with the intention of catching any wild turkey, at any season of the year, under a penalty of ten dollars, with costs of prosecution, for each and every offence.

Section 2.—That no person shall make, build or construct, any blind, screen, or cover, within said county, either for himself, or other person, or take advantage of any blind, screen, or cover, which is, or may hereafter be, constructed, expressly for the purpose, and with the intention, of shooting wild turkey therefrom, or shall entice and allure by repeated feeding, to a particular place, for the purpose of lying in concealment and killing, at any season of the year, under a penalty of ten dollars with costs of prosecution, for each and every offence.

Section 3.—That no person shall shoot, or otherwise catch, or destroy, any grey or black squirel, within the said county, between the first day of February and fourth of July, under a penalty of two dollars and fifty cents with costs of prosecution, for each and every offence.

Section 4.—That the possession, by any person, of any wild turkey, or squirrel, killed out of the season allowed therefor by this act, shall be prima facia evidence to convict, under this act.

Section 5.—That any person offending against any of the provisions of this act, and being thereof convicted, by the testimony of one, or more, witnesses, or the confession of the party, before any justice of the peace in said county, shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the penalty, or penalties, attached to the same, one-half to the use of the county, and the other half to the use of the informer; and if the offender shall refuse to pay the said penalty, or penalties, he shall be committed by the justice, to the county jail, for the space of one day, for each and every dollar of the penalty imposed upon him according to this act: Provided, That information be made within thirty days after the commission of the offence.

Section 6—That for the purpose of further protecting game and insectivorous birds, whenever any person, after the passage of this act, has killed any fox, wild cat, pole cat, hawk or owl, within said county, and produced, in the case of a fox, or wild cat, or pole cat, the scalp, and in the case of a hawk, or owl, the scalp and the exact measure, from the extremity of one wing to the extremity of the other, before any justice of the peace in and for said county, it shall be the duty of said justice to examine such person, on oath, or affirmation, touching the time when, and the place where, such fox, wild cat, pole cat, hawk, or owl, was killed; and if the same shall be found to have been within said county, it shall be the duty of the said justice to give an order to the treasurer of said county, for the sum of two dollars for each and every scalp of a full grown fox, or wild cat, and for the sum of one dollar for each and every scalp of a fox, or wild cat less than full grown, and every hawk, or owl, exceeding three feet in extremity of one wing to the extremity of the other, and the sum of fifty cents for each and every pole cat, and each and every hawk, or owl, less than three feet from the extremity of one wing to the extremity of the other and it shall be the duty of the treasurer to pay the amount of such order.

Section 7.—That the constable of each respective township and borough in said county, having knowledge of any offence against this act, shall inform any justice of the peace in said county, of the name and residence of any such offender, that he may be tried, agreably to the provisions of this act, under a penalty of ten dollars, to be sued for and appropriated, as other penalties mentioned in this act are directed to be sued for and appropriated.

Section 8.—That any act, or acts, or part of any act, or acts, conflicting with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

JOHN P. GLASS,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

LOUIS W. HALL,
Speaker of Senate.

APPROVED—The eighth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

JNO. W. GEARY.

CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD.—Mr. C. P. Manning, Esq., Assistant Engineer ef the Connellsville Railroad, has opened an office in Cumberland for the transaction of business connected with the road. Work on the road was commenced last week, and will be prosecuted with vigor. The people of Cumberland confidently expect to be in direct communication by rail, with Pittsburg, in about fifteen months, as the heaviest part of the work is done, so that the side cutting and leveling up will not be very heavy work. This is a road much needed, and we hope too see the company put it through on the double quick.

INJURED.—On last Tuesday week, David Weaverling, fell down a shaft in one of L. T. Watson's ore mines, near Bloody Run, a distance of forty-five feet. The shaft being narrow he retained the position he had when he started, and landed on his heels. He received severe, but it is thought, not fatal injuries.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—There will be Service at the Court House during the Summer at 4 o'clock in the afternoon instead of evening, in addition to the usual morning Service.

MELANCHOLY SUICIDE.—We are pained to learn that on last Wednesday, the 8th inst., in the town of Woodbury, Miss Maggie Stover, aged 21 years, an exemplary and highly esteemed young lady, committed suicide by hanging. Our space will not permit the publication of the whole of our correspondent's version of this sad affair, which he says he has been requested to write us, to prevent erroneous reports. He says:

"On the morning in question, she arose early, prepared the breakfast for her brother, did up the morning work neatly, as usual, and immediately afterward, went to the stable and committed the deed. She had been suffering from an indisposition for some time and was much depressed in spirit. None stood higher in society, or was more beloved than Maggie. She had no faults, was kind to all, and obedient to her parents. Her disposition was such as to make her a favorite with all with whom she came in contact. She left the following letter, which I give you verbatim:—

WOODBURY, July 9, 1868.

DEAR MOTHER: I cause you trouble this morning, but I have come to the conclusion not to trouble you any more.

Dear Mother, pardon me for what I have done.

Dear Mother, do as you wish with my clothes, for I will not need them anymore.

Father, don't take it hard for I am in a deep study. Brother Christ. hope God may be with you now and forever. People are getting down on me. May God ever be with you all now and forever-more.

May God be with the unknown friend.
No more, but remain your true friend,
MAGGIE, TO HER MOTHER.

My love to Jennie N., Mary and Clara Lee. Good bye, mother, don't forget MAGGIE.

The sentences are very much disjointed, and show great suffering of mind. Her remains were attended to the grave by a large concourse of our citizens, all eager to do homage to all that remained of poor Maggie. Her untimely death has cast a deep gloom upon our entire community. The bereaved friends have the sympathy of all. May God bless and comfort them in their deep affliction!" F.

WHAT WILL YOU HAVE TO DRINK.—Different people, in different places have different ways of expressing the same thing. For example, in Montana, when a man asks you to drink, he says: "Let's try some of the molten lead and brimstone." In Idaho, "Let's have a little extract Kansas." In Arizona, "Let's take a scalp." At Sacramento, "Let's reduce the flood." About the Mud Volcanoes on the Humboldt it's "Suppose we blaze?" At Fort Chuchill they say, "Let's inoculate with the measles," and everybody is inoculated there. In Berlin, Somerset county, "Will you have the Manuel?" At Chicago, "Nominate your poison," and they pour it down and are poisoned. And in Bedford, thusly, "Let's mix," and verily they mixeth and get "mixed."

STORM.—On last Tuesday week, Bedford was visited by the most severe storm of rain and hail that we have ever seen. It raged with unabated fury for about two hours. Shade trees were torn up by the roots, and along the Juniata large sycamores were twisted off like saplings. Bedford street looked navigable, and at one time the low parts of town were threatened with more irrigation than is thought necessary to assist growing vegetation.

IN TOWN.—Col. J. H. Filler is in town on a short visit to his friends.—It is needless to say that the Colonel heartily endorses the New York nominees, and has no doubt of their triumphant election. During his stay he will address the Democracy, notice whereof will be given. May his shadow ne'er grow less!

REMEMBER, that at the Regulator's, No. 2, Anderson's Row, (H. F. Irvine, proprietor,) you can get the best makes of boots, shoes, gaiters, balmorals, slippers, &c., for ladies and gentlemen, misses and children.

TRY IT.—If our nominees for county offices are "wooden men" the Rads are not able to raise power enough to knock them off their "pins." Try it on!

THE Rads say that Grant will be elected beyond a doubt. We won't take that for Granted, but they'll Sey*mour* about it after a while.

FINE SEGARS.—Where can I get a good segar at a moderate price, is a question often asked. We would say to all at G. R. Oster's new store. They have the best assortment of segars and chewing tobaccos in town.

FOR SALE—A four-octave MELODEON, of excellent tone, and as good as new. Will be sold cheap. Terms Cash. Enquire at this office. jul3tf.

RETURNED.—The outside delegates, from this place, to the New York convention. They have unbounded confidence in the success of the nominees.

WE call attention to the advertisement of proposals for the erection of a new Poor House under head of "new advertisements."

AN excellent pavement has been put down in front of Fyan's Row. Similar improvement are needed in other parts of the town.

PUMPS! PUMPS!! PUMPS!!!
SYLVESTER G. MASON'S
DOUBLE-ACTING, NON-FREEZING
FORCE PUMP,
Patented August 28th, 1866, and awarded the PREMIUM at the Pennsylvania, Ohio, and New York State Fairs, in 1866.
The advantages claimed for this pump over all other patent pumps are as follows, viz: The valves, instead of being gum, as is the case in most pumps, are composed entirely of cast iron, rendering it the most durable of any pump yet patented. There is no packing about it, consequently it cannot get out of order. This pump is so constructed that it never freezes, the water dropping, the moment you stop pumping, back to the level with the water in the well. It is simply constructed, durable and cheap. It will force water any distance. It is easily worked, and can be used, by attaching hose, in washing wagons, horses, watering gardens, and in case of fire is of valuable service, as water may be thrown to the distance of from sixty to seventy feet in the air from it by the use of a small section of hose
This valuable pump is now offered to the public at very moderate prices, by J. W. ROHM, Agent for this county. He warrants every pump to work satisfactory. Township rights for sale.
MR. ROHM is also agent for Franklin, Fulton, Huntingdon, Blair and Somerset counties, and will sell township and county rights very reasonable.
Call and see this wonderful pump, farmers, which is now on exibition at the Washington Hotel, in Bedford. For further information address J. W. ROHM.

STAR AGRICULTURAL WORKS. THE ALBANY COTTON GIN MANUFACTURING Co., Albany, N. Y., Manufacturers of General Agricultural Machinery, comprising the celebrated "Star" Threshing Machines; "Star" Railway (or Endless Chain) and Lever Horse Powers; "Star" Cotton Gins and Condensers; Circular Cross-cut Sawmills; Vegetable Cutters; Horse Hay Forks; Corn and Feed Mills; Power Corn Shellers; Dog Powers, &c., &c.
We wish to call the particular attention of Farmers to our celebrated "STAR" THRESHER AND CLEANER, which, as lately improved, we claim it far superior to any other machine now in market. It is compact and easily portable, simple in its construction, and therefore easy to operate by the most inexperienced, and will do its work with marvellous rapidity and perfection, and with comparatively the least demand upon the strength of the animals driving it.
We have made recent improvements in this machine by which we are enabled to thoroughly clean the grain under almost any combination of difficulties, and we are now using an entirely new and effective device for relieving the feeder of dust, thus making the operation of threshing as comfortable and safe as with the ordinary machines it is annoying and frequently destructive of health.
These Machines are made of suitable sizes for our "Star" Railway 2 Horse Power and for our "Star" Lever Powers for 4 and 6 horses.
For sale by our agents and dealers generally. For full particulars, send for our Illustrated Descriptive Circular and Price List. Correspondents will please address The Albany Cotton Gin Manufacturing Co., P. O. Drawer 162, Albany, N. Y.

Proof of our statement that we have made
A COMPLETE

IN TRADE,
can be found in the fact that the immense business we have built up has induced a multitude of small concerns to imitate our club system, and some by advertising the presents they will give to agents, seek, unsuccessfully, to divert some of our business to themselves. We make this announcement simply to inform the public that it will be for their interest to patronize our house, as we still continue to give better Goods and greater inducements to agents than any other concern in the business.
We sell every description of DRY AND FANCY GOODS, PLATED WARE, JEWELRY, WATCHES, SEWING MACHINES, &c., &c., for the uniform price of ONE DOLLAR Circulars sent to any address free. PARKER & CO.,

PROSPECTUS.
THE MORNING PATRIOT.
The office of the late Patriot and Union having passed into the hands of the undersigned, they propose to supply a vacuum that has long existed in the newspaper press of interior Pennsylvania.
From some cause or other the reading masses of the Democratic party of the great interior counties of the State, have been compelled, either to do without the latest news, or patronize journals whose political sentiments were distasteful to them.
The MORNING PATRIOT is intended to supply this want.
Its proprietors are determined that no efforts shall be spared, on their part, to make it FULLY EQUAL, as a newspaper, to any of its competitors Whatever the electric wires are able to communicate, up to the hour of going to press, will be furnished in its columns every morning; and its large size will enable it to give quite as much reading matter as any of its contemporaries.
As an advocate of sound political sentiments, favoring no faction, clique or section, but devoting its entire energies to the good of the whole party; as a vehicle of the latest news, and a chronicler of passing events, we are determined that it shall not be excelled; and we confidently appeal to a discriminating public for that appreciation and encouragement which are indispensable to success.
TERMS:
For the Daily, one year in advance.....$7 00
For the Daily Six months, in advance..... 3 50
Single copies, THREE CENTS.
THE WEEKLY PATRIOT.
It is the determination of the proprietors of the PATRIOT to make their weekly journal fully equal to what the "Patriot and Union" was in its palmiest days. It will be one of the largest weekly papers in the State, and special pains will be taken to fill its columns with such reading matter as will be alike interesting and useful to the Farmer, the Mechanic and the Man of Business, and to make it an agreeable and welcome visitor to every family.
Every person should subscribe to the paper printed in his own county, and we do not mean to enter into competition with the local papers of the State. But, many people take their home paper and a city paper in addition. To such we send greeting.
TERMS:
Single copy, one year.....$2 50

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.
He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impendiments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.
☞Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
☞This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land
Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,
